

JAIL EXCITEMENT NOW SUBSIDED

Four Guards at Alexandria County Bastile.

STATEMENT BY THE JAILER

Condition of Private Scott, Injured in Race Melee, Reported Much Improved and Now Well Out of Danger—Rigid Inquiry Started by Fort Myer Authorities.

Excitement that has been at a fever heat over the attempted lynching of the negro, Robert Jackson, at the Alexandria County jail, has subsided somewhat.

But four guards stood in defense of the jail last night, and Jailer Harry Crack said at a late hour that he anticipated no further trouble.

"I have looked up five negroes who were with Robinson when he assaulted Private Scott," declared the jailer last night, in a telephone conversation with a Herald representative. "I have secured from one of them the statement that he yelled when Scott was caught.
'Come on, I've got him.'"

Jailer Kept His Nerve.

"I want to give a correct statement of my actions on the occasion of the attempted lynching of the other night. I want to say that I was perfectly cool and never lost my nerve, though I realized that it was a serious proposition I was up against. I said there wasn't a man in the crowd I was afraid of.
I knew the soldiers were armed with revolvers, but I simply told them the truth, that the prisoner was not in the jail, and they were convinced of the statement. We were guarded to-night, but everything is quiet and I anticipate no trouble. The soldiers treated me with every consideration."

The condition of Private Scott according to report late last night from the post hospital was to the effect that he is much improved and now well out of danger.

A field investigation has been started at Fort Myer into the attempted assault upon the jail. Search for the participants will be thorough and the punishment that will be meted out to the soldiers will be on the following charge: Leaving quarters at night, going off post without leave, and intent to violate civil law by lynching of a negro, Robert Jackson, for attack upon one of their own number.

The details will be embodied in a report to be made the coming week to Brig. Gen. Walter Howe, at the headquarters of the Department of the East in New York.

Capt. Horn's Statement.

Col. Joseph Garrard, commanding officer of the post, has gone to the maneuver camp at Gettysburg. Capt. T. N.
Horn, of the Third Field Artillery, remaining in his place to direct the investigation.

"The only fortunate circumstance," said Capt. Horn, "is that there was no attempt at violence by the men. There is no doubt that they went to the jail and asked the jailer to turn the negro over to them. At first I thought that only a few soldiers congregated around the prison. I have since learned, however, that forty or fifty men left their quarters, slipped through the guard lines, and demanded that Jailer Crack turn the negro over to them. But there was no overt act, no attempt at violence, no effort to assault the jailer or to force the jail doors."

Awaiting the result of the inquiries sustained by Private Scott, of Fort Myer, Judge J. B. T. Thornton, of the Circuit Court for Alexandria County, decided yesterday not to adjourn court for several days.

COL. T. W. HOPKINS NAMED.

Will Represent District at Gettysburg Celebration in 1913.

Commissioner Rudolph yesterday appointed Col. Thomas W. Hopkins to represent the District at the celebration at Gettysburg on July 1 to 4, 1913, to commemorate the fifty-fifth anniversary of the battle.

The State of Pennsylvania has issued invitations to all States of the Union and to the government of the United States at large to send representatives. The representatives of the United States will be Senators Weldon B. Heyburn and Isidor Rayner, and Representatives James A. Tawney, Daniel F. Latham, and John Lamb.

ELKS OFF FOR DETROIT.

Washington to Be Well Represented at Annual Convention.

About forty of the Washington Elks left last night in a special car for the convention at Detroit, where the "best people on earth" will revel in the great funfest that attracts the whole country.

Sixty more will leave to-day, forming another party, but all bent for the same happy gathering. Washington will be well represented this year. Past Exalted Ruler Robert M. McWade, the "father of them all," will lead the party leaving the Union Station at 10 o'clock this morning.

Some will remain in the special car and go straight to Detroit, and others will go to Buffalo and enjoy the trip by steamer over Lake Erie.

Atlantic City seems to be the favorite city for the next convention.

Hurt in Car Crash.

David Boyd, colored, twenty years old, driver for George B. Mullin, a livery table keeper on the Broad Branch road, was seriously injured last night and his wagon demolished when struck by a Capital Traction car, in Connecticut avenue northwest, near Tilden street. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital, where his condition is reported to be serious.
Several ribs were broken and he sustained internal injuries.

Woman Autoists Are Improving.

Report from the attending physicians of Mrs. R. Z. Roberts and Mrs. E. S.
Pock, of 1323 Newton street, both of whom were severely injured Friday night when their automobile was struck by a street car at Seventeenth street and Connecticut avenue, are rapidly recovering.
Mrs. Pock was the most seriously injured, being a severe cut on the head, but last night was resting easily, and no complications are expected.

MEYER ON THE "LID."

Secretary of Navy Relieves Hitchcock and Nagel.

Secretary of the Navy Meyer is enjoying the distinction of "sitting on the lid" for the next few days.

Mr. Meyer arrived in Washington Friday night from his summer home in Hamilton, Mass., to attend to several important naval matters which accumulated during his absence. Almost as soon as Mr. Meyer arrived in Washington, Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel and Postmaster General Hitchcock jumped trains for cooler climates.

Prof. Willis L. Moore, chief of the Weather Bureau, is holding down the lid in the Department of Agriculture.
Secretary Wilson is on his annual vacation.

Mr. Wilson made the announcement before he went away that he would devote his time during his vacation to the study of the Northwest and the development of the great resources which that country possesses. While he is gone Mr.
Moore will look after his own department work as well as that of the Secretary.

There are branch offices of The Washington Herald scattered all over the city,

COUNCIL IS FLOURISHING.

Potomac No. 208, N. E., Hears Gratifying Reports.

Potomac Council, No. 208, of the National Union, held a regular meeting and initiation at Pythian Temple last night.
Ex-Presidents F. E. Ferguson and Charles T. Hendler, who were elected senators to the supreme body of the order a short time ago, were present and made short addresses, thanking the members for their support.

The semi-annual reports of the financial secretary and the treasurer showed the council to be in a most flourishing condition. A donation was made to the Pioneer Council, No. 1, Sons of Johnnabab, for their annual excursion.

It was announced that the first prize, which this council won in the class initiation held June 3, will be given to the council in the near future. The prize is $100 cash.

After W. B. Bowers, T. J. Hines, and C. J. Kreen were initiated, the members held a smoker and social session.

Robbed of Gold Watch.

Harry S. Bagler, of 1234 B street southwest, reported to the police last night that his residence had been entered some time during the day and a gold watch, value at $50, and about $10 in cash stolen.
Entrance to the dwelling had evidently been gained by a rear door fastened only by a latched screen.

WASHINGTON MAN ACCUSES GOVERNOR

Says Maryland Executive Has Acted Illegally.

Baltimore, July 9.—Charles Benedict Calvert, a Washington attorney, has sent a second letter to Gov. Crutcher accusing the chief executive of Maryland of acting "in an illegal and arbitrary manner" in remitting the fines of automobilists who were arrested a short time ago at Herwyn, Md., for speeding. Mr. Calvert declares that the governor was extremely discourteous and that he had no right to remit the fines.

Declaring that he had called the attention of the governor to the fact that by remitting the fines he was committing a violation of the duty of an executive officer, Mr. Calvert adds that the governor paid no attention to his suggestion, but "instructed the secretary of State to enforce his order remitting said fines and forfeiture." Among other things, Mr. Calvert writes:

"It occurs to me as a remarkable proposition that the highest executive officer of the State would seem, by his action, to condone the violation of law made for the public protection and remit the fines imposed upon those who have violated the law, without any notice whatsoever to the local authorities, so that they might acquit you with the facts of the case."

"The constitutional provision giving you the power to remit fines was intended to relieve injustice and not to be used as a violation of the duty of the governor, following in the spirit of the constitution, can never exercise the power without giving the local authorities an opportunity to present the facts to him."

Struck by Passing Car.

While leaning out of the window of a south-bound car yesterday morning W. B.
Ryan, twenty-six years old, of 2011 Fifteenth street northwest, was struck on the arm by the handle of a north-bound car, at Fifteenth street and New York avenue. The injury was a mild one.

Woman Falls from Car.

Annie McKeever, forty-four years old, of 215 B street northwest, was thrown to the ground while alighting from a car at Pennsylvania avenue and Third street northwest, yesterday afternoon, and was injured on the arm and leg. She was able to go home unassisted.

SUES HER DENTIST.

Woman Wants $5,000 Damages for Breaking Molar Tooth.

Damages in the sum of $5,000 are asked by Frances Barstow in the bill of a suit she has filed in the District Supreme Court against J. Roland Walton, a dentist of 702 Tenth street northwest. The plaintiff alleges that in January, 1910, she employed the defendant to attend her as a dentist, and to cure her of a diseased tooth, and that he treated her until May. Then, she alleges, he acted in an unskillful, ignorant, and negligent manner with the result that he broke off in her molar tooth a steel instrument, and that the tooth had to be removed by another dentist.

Rider Hurt, Wheel Demolished.

While riding a bicycle in Fourteenth street, near Thomas Circle, last night, Louis Steebie, twelve years old, was slightly injured by a collision with a wagon driven by a colored man. The boy was thrown to the pavement and cut about the face and head, but refused to go to a hospital. The bicycle was demolished.

Car Collides with Sprinkler.

Passengers on Capital Traction car No.
159 were shaken up last night when the car collided with a city street sprinkler at Fourteenth and Monroe streets northwest. The sprinkler was put out of commission, but no one was injured.
